CORPORATE ALLIANCE

PRESENTS:

ART BARTER

Art Barter is President and CEO of Datron World Communications, Inc. He radically rebuilt Datron's culture by changing it from a traditional, power-led model to one of servant leadership. The result: the small international radio manufacturer grew from a $10 million company to a $200 million company in only six years.

His experience with Datron's transformation is chronicled in the book, The Art of Servant Leadership. Art founded the Servant Leadership Institute as a vehicle to share his knowledge and teach others how to inspire and equip those they influence.

By adopting a "serve first" attitude and implementing proven principles and strategies, thousands of people across the globe have enriched their personal and professional lives, built healthier and more profitable companies, and created happier, more engaged employees.
